

Visual Electrophysiology for Technicians

This course is designed to train technical staff to advance functional visual assessments, to increase the reliability of test results globally and to ensure the implementation of ISCEV standards.

Developed by experts from the University of Sydney and UCL.
Endorsed by ISCEV.

Details

23rd May – 1st July 2022

100% online

USD300 / £230 / AUD370 plus GST ***

- 6 weeks of pre-recorded lectures to study at your own pace
- Live online tutorials via Zoom (dates and times TBC)
- Flexible online learning platform
- Certificate of completion from the University of Sydney
- Lifelong access

Presenters

Dorothy Thompson, Great Ormond Street Institute of Child Health, UCL

John Grigg, University of Sydney

Arlene Drack, University of Iowa

Wanda Pfiefer, University of Iowa

Ajoy Vincent, University of Toronto

Anupreet Tumber, University of Toronto

Anne Georgiou, Moorfields Eye Hospital, London

Oliver Marmoy, Great Ormond Street Hospital, London

Paul Constable, Flinders University, Adelaide

Register

Mailing list

*Payment will be made to the University of Sydney in Australian Dollars

ophthalmology.education@sydney.edu.au